Background: Two decades ago, the messianic/Christian worship group Voice of the Shepherd recorded an album of original Scripture-based messianic music. The group has performed in events with Paul Wilbur, Marty Goetz, Sid Roth, and their songs were briefly played on one of the top Christian radio stations in America. After a 25-year hiatus, the Lord unexpectedly restarted the group in a miraculous way. Voice of the Shepherd was recently the subject of a 2-page feature story in the international publication the Messianic Times. The group has just released its first new album in 25 years titled For Such a Time as This. The 12 songs are based on the words and people in the Bible. We invite you to attend the Cleveland premier concert.
